Macroeconomic & Corporate News

'Jordan exports up 3.8% in 2018 despite challenges, conditions' — investment minister

Exports of the Amman Chamber of Industry increased in 2018 by 9 per cent, as Jordan's total exports went up by 3.8 per cent, despite the challenges and conditions surrounding the Kingdom, Minister of State for Investment Affairs Muhammud Shehadeh said on Sunday. During a meeting with the president and members of the Jordan Chamber of Industry (JCI), Shehadeh, who is also chairman of the Jordan Investment Commission (JIC), said he expects an increase in the value of exports and investment volume in 2019, compared with 2018, according to a JIC statement.

Egypt to supply Kingdom with half of its gas needs this year

Jordan and Egypt on Sunday signed agreements under which the Kingdom will be provided with half of its needs of natural gas to generate electricity for 2019. National Electric Power Company (NEPCO) Director General Amjad Rawashdeh, Egyptian Natural Gas Holding Company (EGAS) Director General Osamah Baqli and the Jordanian-Egyptian FAJR for Natural Gas Transmission and Supply Company Director Fuad Rashad signed the agreements in Cairo, an Energy Ministry statement said. Energy Minister Hala Zawati, who attended the signing ceremony with her Egyptian counterpart Tarek El Molla, said that the deals include amendments to previous accords between the two countries regarding the purchase and sale of natural gas.

Jordan, Czech Republic agree to bolster healthcare negotiation

Jordan and the Czech Republic on Sunday agreed to bolster cooperation in the healthcare sector, according to an official statement carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra. Health Minister Ghazi Zaben and Czech Ambassador to Jordan Joseph Kotski discussed sharing expertise through a medical personnel exchange programme and boosting cooperation in the field of medical tourism.
