DLS records surge in apartment, land sales

A total of 9,132 apartments of all sizes were sold from October 21 to December 31 of 2019, estimated at a total value of JD526 million, according to the Department of Land and Survey (DLS). Sales during this period marked a 41.4 per cent increase compared to the same period in 2018, witnessing a total of 6,485 apartment sales, according to data shared by the DLS with The Jordan Times on Monday. A total of 5,367 apartments smaller than 150 square metres were sold between October 21 and December 31, 2019 at a value of JD210 million, according to the DLS. Total sales of apartments ranging between 150 and 180 square metres in the same period in 2019 reached 2,045, while sales of apartments larger than 180 square metres stood at 1,720. Regarding land, the DLS divided sales into residential, industrial and commercial lands, as well as unincorporated areas, which are lands that fall outside the jurisdiction of a municipality.

Low-cost flights take tourism to new heights — stakeholders

Low-cost carrier (LCC) flights have improved the accessibility of tourist locations in the Kingdom, according to sector experts. Jordan Society of Tourism and Travel Agents (JSTA) President Mohammad Samih told The Jordan Times on Monday that the Kingdom “still relies on regular airlines for the most part”, noting that packages and round trips tend to employ their services. “LCC do not deal with travel agents and offices, and their work is all done online, but they offer added value for low-budget travellers and young people,” Samih noted. For his part, Chief Commissioner of Petra Development and Tourism Region Authority (PDTRA) Suleiman Farajat said that the Kingdom’s tourism revenues have increased after the rise in LCC flights. Farajat noted that LCC flights are important in marketing the Kingdom’s tourism destinations, especially given that such flights are always available at a low cost, even during peak seasons. The number of tourists in the Kingdom in general has increased, Farajat said, noting that Petra specifically has been receiving around 2,000
