Tobacco smuggling affects government revenues' — minister

The increasing phenomenon of smuggling tobacco products into the local market is affecting government revenues negatively, hence the vitality of stiffening penalties to address the trend, Finance Minister Ezzeddine Kanakrieh said on Friday. Kanakrieh added that the ministry will enforce higher penalties on smugglers, so as to protect the national economy and increase control on border crossings, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The minister called for joining all efforts to curb this phenomenon.

CISI expands its presence in Jordan through a partnership with Integrated Development Academy

Following the recent announcement of its collaboration with the Jordan Securities Commission (JSC), the Chartered Institute for Securities & Investment (CISI) is proud to welcome the Integrated Development Academy (IDA), a specialised training provider in Amman, Jordan as one of its newest accredited training partners in the Middle East.

As a result of the partnership, the CISI's internationally recognised qualifications are now part of the IDA's suite of business training and financial management offering. Qualifications available to IDA's students include Fundamentals of Financial Services, Introduction to Securities & Investment, International Certificate in Wealth & Investment Management and Islamic Finance Qualification.

Labour Ministry announces availability of 3,300 jobs across Kingdom

The Labour Ministry on Thursday announced that there are some 3,300 job in various sectors that are available through the ministry's 27 employment offices. Ministry Spokesperson Mohammad Khatib said that these job opportunities are available in all governorates and according to the needs of the private sector, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Khatib noted that interested jobseekers can visit the employment offices to check on the available jobs, adding that there are 217 jobs in Aqaba, 122 in Maan, 624 in Irbid, 254 in Ajloun, 100 in Karak, 205 in Tafileh and 42 in Balqa. A total of 92 jobs are available in Mafraq, 660 in Zarqa, 636 in Amman, 280 in Jerash and 62 in Madaba, he said.
