Jordanian, Czech ministers meet to bolster economic, energy cooperation

Jordan and the Czech Republic on Monday held meetings to bolster trade and investment cooperation, address the trade deficit and explore energy cooperation. Minister of Industry, Trade and Supply Tareq Hammouri and his Czech counterpart Marta Nováková signed the minutes of the Jordanian-Czech Joint Committee's first session held in Amman on Sunday and Monday. Hammouri expressed his appreciation for the Czech Republic's support to Jordan regarding the relaxed EU rules of origin for Jordanian exports. The minister reviewed 2017 Jordanian exports to the Czech Republic during the committee's meetings, which amounted to $199,000. Jordan's imports from the Czech Republic were valued at $53 million in 2017.

Razzaz, Emirati vice president discuss Mecca summit, London initiative

Sheikh Mohammad Bin Rashed Al Maktoum, the UAE's vice president, prime minister and ruler of Dubai, on Monday received Prime Minister Omar Razzaz in Abu Dhabi, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. During a short working visit to the UAE, the premier conveyed His Majesty King Abdullah's greetings to Emirati President Sheikh Khalifa Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Sheikh Mohammad Bin Rashed Al Maktoum and the Emirati people, stressing His Majesty's support for steps that would perpetuate the relations between the two countries.

National exports record 3.6% growth in 2018

The volume of national exports in 2018 grew by 3.6 per cent compared with 2017, pushed by the increase in clothes, potash and fertilisers exports, the Department of Statistics (DoS) announced on Monday. A DoS statement, cited by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, showed that the value of national exports in 2018 totalled JD4.668 billion, while the value of imports during the same year dropped by 1.4 per cent to JD14.354 billion.
