Macroeconomic & Corporate News

NEPCO, Jordan Islamic Bank sign agreements worth approximately JD334m

The National Electric Power Company (NEPCO) and the Jordan Islamic Bank on Sunday signed two loan agreements worth approximately JD334 million. The loans will be given to NEPCO on a purchase order basis, referred to in Sharia law as the "murabaha" standard, according to a statement sent by NEPCO. In a statement carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, NEPCO CEO Amjad Rawashdeh said the loans were given with concessional conditions and a competitive interest rate. He added that the first loan was worth JD227.5 million, while the second was worth $150 million.

Jordan, Cyprus and Greece agree to expand cooperation in vital fields

His Majesty King Abdullah, Cypriot President Nicos Anastasiades and Greek Prime Minister Alexis Tsipras agreed during their trilateral summit on Sunday at Al Husseiniya Palace to expand cooperation between the three countries in vital sectors, including energy, water, agriculture, tourism, healthcare, education, trade, investment and ICT. The three countries also agreed to encourage their respective private sectors to establish joint projects that capitalise on available trade opportunities, while bolstering expertise and knowledge exchange, a Royal Court statement said.

Business forum organised on sidelines of trilateral summit with Cyprus, Greece

Minister of State for Investment Affairs Muhammud Shehadeh on Sunday said the Kingdom enjoys experienced personnel and promising sectors that can be utilised. Attending a Jordanian-Cypriot-Greek business forum, which the Jordan Chamber of Commerce organised on the sidelines of His Majesty King Abdullah, Cypriot President Nicos Anastasiades and Greek Prime Minister Alexis Tsipras' trilateral summit, Shehadeh called on the three countries' businesspeople to work to improve commercial exchange and establish joint ventures.
