PM, Qatari FM explore cooperation in various fields, including education, employment

Prime Minister Omar Razzaz on Thursday received Qatar's Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Khalid Bin Mohammad Al Attiyah and an accompanying delegation at his office. Their meeting tackled issues of furthering Jordanian-Qatari relations and enhancing cooperation in service of the two peoples' interests. In a statement carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, Razzaz reiterated the depth of relations between the two countries and the high level of cooperation between them. He stressed on the importance of furthering what has already been achieved, noting more can be attained to maximise mutual benefit.

Gov't open to talks on establishing Turkish industrial zone — Shehadeh

Minister of State for Investment Affairs Muhannad Shehadeh on Thursday said that the government and the Jordan Investment Commission (JIC) were open to the idea of establishing a Turkish industrial zone. "We are ready to provide all the necessary facilities in support of Turkish investment in the Kingdom," Shehadeh said in a JIC statement. The statement came during a Turkish delegation's visit to the JIC. The delegation was comprised of a number of Turkish investors, representing some of the largest Turkish industrial firms. "Jordan provides Turkish companies with the advantage of its geographic location, which presents a gateway to international markets through a number of trade agreements with various economic authorities, allowing them access to over 1.5 billion consumers," Shehadeh added.

Jordan, Lebanon discuss agricultural trade, cooperation

Minister of Agriculture and Environment Ibrahim Shahadeh on Saturday met his Lebanese counterpart Hassan Lakkis to discuss boosting bilateral cooperation in the field of agriculture and restoring the status of trade in agricultural products to pre-Syrian crisis levels. In a statement carried by the Jordan News Agency, Petra, the ministers affirmed the importance of enhancing export opportunities and the conditions of farmers in both countries, in addition to removing obstacles facing the export and import of produce.
