King discusses joint action with Arab foreign ministers

His Majesty King Abdullah on Wednesday stressed the importance of joint coordination on regional issues and crises to enhance joint Arab action and serve the interests of Arab countries and peoples. The King's remarks came during a meeting at Al Husseinia Palace with Kuwait's First Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister Sheikh Sabah Al Khalid Al Hamad Al Sabah, UAE's Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation Sheikh Abdullah Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Bahraini Foreign Minister Khalid Bin Ahmed Al Khalifa, Saudi Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Adel Al Jubeir and Egyptian Minister of Foreign Affairs Sameh Shoukry, a Royal Court statement said.

Shehadeh reviews London conference agenda with ministers, private sector

The London conference will improve Jordan's economy, finance and investments, Minister of State for Investment Affairs Muhannad Shehadeh said on Wednesday. During a meeting, which was organised by the Jordan Strategy Forum to discuss the role of the Jordanian private sector at the London conference, Shehadeh said that the government will unveil a plan at the conference to improve economic growth in the Kingdom, according to a ministry statement. The minister also said that the Jordanian delegation will focus on four pillars during the conference. The first pillar will focus on the legislative and economic reforms put forward by the government.

Jordanian ministers meet with Spanish official, sign memorandum

Jordan and Spain on Wednesday signed a memorandum of understanding to boost bilateral economic, financial, and development cooperation. In a meeting with Spanish Secretary of State for Trade Xiana Mendez, Minister of Planning and International Cooperation Mary Kawar discussed means to enhance economic and investment cooperation with Spain and reviewed issues of mutual interest, according to a ministry statement. Kawar stressed the importance of financial support to Jordan, to help it maintain economic resilience and overcome the challenges from the Syrian refugee crisis.
