Macroeconomic & Corporate News

Razzaz meets with businessmen to explore economic opportunities

Prime Minister Omar Razzaz on Tuesday met with the Jordanian Businessmen Association (JBA) to discuss ways to stimulate the economy and improve trade relations with Iraq. JBA President Hamdi Tabbaa briefed Razzaz on economic challenges and the role of the private sector in moving the economy forward, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Razzaz said that the government seeks to enhance trade exchanges with neighbouring countries to support the national economy, referring to his visits to Turkey, Iraq and the US.

Jordanian, Lebanese companies sign agreement to build Ritz-Carlton in Amman

Al Eqbal Real Estate Development and Lebanese Matta et Associés contracting company on Tuesday signed an agreement valued at $150 million to build the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Amman. Under the agreement, signed between Al Eqbal Chairman Tawfiq Fakhouri and Matta Chairman Jack Matta, construction of the hotel was agreed to be undertaken by the Matta company, while electrical work for the hotel will be awarded to a local contractor under the supervision of Matta before the end of the month. During the signing ceremony, attended by Tourism Minister Majd Shweikeh and the owners of the involved companies, Fakhouri expressed his pride in the Jordanian investment, worth $270 million, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

300 Jordanian products exempted from Iraqi customs

Some 300 Jordanian commodities will be exempted of custom duties and fees to Iraq as of next week under an understanding reached between the two countries, an official said on Tuesday. Meanwhile, Jordan and Iraq have agreed that the former would lower fees on Iraqi shipments handled at Aqaba Port in return for lower prices of Iraqi oil imported by Jordan, Iraqi Prime Minister Adel Abdul Mahdi announced Tuesday, as quoted by the Jordan News Agency, Petra.
