King accepts resignation of Razzaz's Cabinet, entrusts it to continue as caretaker gov't

His Majesty King Abdullah on Saturday accepted the resignation of Omar Razzaz's Cabinet, and entrusted it to continue as caretaker government until a new prime minister is named and a new Cabinet is formed, according to a Royal Court statement. In reply to Razzaz's letter of resignation on Saturday, King Abdullah sent a letter. Following is the English translation: "In the Name of God, the Compassionate, the Merciful, Your Excellency Dr Omar Razzaz, As the Cabinet has submitted its resignation, in accordance with constitutional requirements, I express my appreciation to you and your colleagues the ministers for your efforts in service of our dear lordan.

Jordan drops in global smart city rankings

Jordan ranked fourth in the Arab world in a recent report on smart digital cities for the year 2020. In its fifth edition, the Smart City Index for 2020 placed the Kingdom in the 53rd place worldwide. The report was prepared by IMD World Competitiveness Centre in Lausanne, Switzerland. The US topped the list followed by Singapore, Denmark, Sweden and Hong Kong. The report stated that over the past 12 months, Jordan registered improvements in some of the indicators such as the availability of capital for the digital world, talents, the technology domain and scientific concentration.
