Jordan, Turkey mull better trade ties after Syria border reopened

Prime Minister Omar Razzaz and Turkish Trade Minister Ruhsar Pekcan on Monday discussed means to boost economic, trade and investment relations between the two countries. During the meeting, Razzaz and Pekcan discussed the free trade agreement (FTA) between the two countries, which Jordan had previously suspended, and went over means to reach a new plan that achieves joint interests in a balanced way, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. The prime minister pointed out that the FTAs that Jordan has entered into with many countries take into consideration the trade balance, protection of local products, technical support and attracting investment. In this regard, he said that the FTA with Turkey only focused on the trade side, which posed a big challenge to national industries in light of their inability to compete with Turkish products, in addition to the impact of regional turmoil on domestic businesses. The Turkish minister stressed her country's willingness to increase Jordanian exports to the Turkish market. The two sides expressed hope that the reopening of the Jaber-Nasib border crossing between Jordan and Syria

CBJ governor highlights bank's role at Islamic financial forum

The 8th Edition of the International Annual Forum on Islamic Financial Industry on Monday started under the title "The Importance of Specialised Institutional Arbitration to support the Islamic Economy", the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported. Maher Sheikh Hassan, Deputy governor of the Central Bank of Jordan, highlighted the bank's role in issuing some instructions for Islamic banks to help in enhancing their business, while taking into account the privacy of Islamic banking. Jasim Shamsi, chairman of the board of trustees of the International Islamic Centre for Reconciliation and Arbitration, said that the accelerating growth of Minister signs agreements to improve Balqa, Zarqa water networks

Water Minister Raed Abul Saud on Monday signed a number of agreements that included three projects to implement water lines and networks in the governorates of Balqa and Zarqa funded by the second Saudi grant and Water Authority budget at a value of JD500,000, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Abu Saud said that these projects seek to develop and improve water supply and services to citizens in light of the increasing pressure on the network stemming from the large refugee influx. He noted that the projects in the Balqa Governorate, worth JD119,000, will be implemented in the Umm Jawzah area by a local contractor, with all works expected to be completed in four * Source: Bloomberg, Jordan Times, Zawya
