The third incentives bundle to improve the national economy, which was announced by the government last Thursday and focuses on increasing the salaries of employees and retirees in the public sector and the military, does not include civil and military retirees who receive their pensions under the Social Security Corporation (SSC) Law, according to the SSC. “There are three types of retirement laws: The civil retirement law, the military retirement law and the SSC law,” the corporation’s spokesperson, Musa Sbeihi, told The Jordan Times on Wednesday, adding: “There are public sector employees who are under the social security law, and the increase does not include them.”

Amman to dole out salary hike to employees, retirees starting 2020

Amman Mayor Yousef Shawarbeh has emphasised that all Greater Amman Municipality (GAM) personnel will get a pay raise, including sanitation workers and retirees, by the start of 2020 in line with government procedures to improve living standards, according to the GAM website. During a GAM board session on Tuesday, the mayor noted that the wage increase will amount to JD8.5 million, in addition to the board’s endorsement of the 2020 draft budget standing at JD527 million. Shawarbeh also affirmed that GAM works to strengthen its proceeds and earnings apart from fees and taxes through investments, according to the website. “The 2020 allowances are unprecedented. The employees will be given pay raises between JD30 and JD100, based on educational qualifications, experience and performance, in a fair manner,” Deputy City Manager of Finance and Administration at GAM Samer Yasin told The Jordan Times on Wednesday.
