Macroeconomic & Corporate News

Inbound remittances from Jordanian expats up 4% by end of February 2019

Total inbound remittances from Jordanian expats rose by 4 per cent by the end of February compared with the same period of 2018, reaching JD425.5 million, according to data released on Wednesday by the Central Bank of Jordan (CBJ). On a monthly basis, preliminary CBJ data showed that the Jordanian expatriate remittances in January of 2019 alone went up by 3.5 per cent to $278.4 million, compared with $269 million in February 2018, the Jordan News Agency, Petra, reported.

Kawar meets with G-7 ambassadors over reforms

Minister of Planning and International Cooperation Mary Kawar on Wednesday met with the ambassadors of G-7 countries involved in the Deauville Partnership Initiative, according to a statement from the Planning Ministry. The meeting, which was also attended by the EU Ambassador to Jordan Andrea Fontana, aimed at following up on initiatives and discussing ways to promote and enhance dialogue with Jordan. Jordan is a recipient of the Deauville Partnership's transition fund to support areas related to financial sustainability, creativity, the promotion of women, youth, water quality, SMEs, competitiveness, investment, transport and trade, according to the statement.

Royal Jordanian offers 21% off on tickets on Mother's Day

Flag carrier Royal Jordanian (RJ) is celebrating Mother's Day this year with a special discount of 21 per cent of its airfares. The offer will be valid for 24 hours on March 21, and available through RJ's online channels. This sales promotion applies to round-trip fares for all RJ's global destinations (excluding travel originating from the US and Canada) in Economy and Business classes, for travel between May 1 and December 15. Those taking advantage of this sales promo can enjoy a maximum stay of 30 days and a minimum stay of three days at their destinations.
