Macroeconomic & Corporate News

Gov't to roll out 2nd incentive package to stimulate economy

The government on Monday will launch the second executive package of its recently unveiled comprehensive programme to stimulate the economy. A new series of stimulus measures and decisions on vital sectors to complement the first package to boost economy and investment, alongside a set of managerial and financial reform procedures, will be announced during a ceremony to be held at the Royal Cultural Centre in Amman, in the presence of Prime Minister Omar Razzaz and his ministerial team. The second phase will include the integration and cancellation of independent entities, which fall within governmental efforts towards economic reform, which it has embarked upon with the aim of improving the public sector's performance and services, as well as efficiently budgeting and remedying administrative shortfalls and red tape.

Amman Industry, trade chambers to hold Jordanian-Kuwaiti business forum

The Amman Chambers of Industry and Trade on Monday will hold a Jordanian-Kuwaiti business forum in Amman in cooperation with the Kuwaiti chamber of industry and trade to discuss the two countries' economic relations commercial partnerships. President of the Amman Chamber of Trade Senator Nael Kabariti on Sunday said that the forum is an "important step" towards enhancing bilateral commercial relations, highlighting the chamber's interest in strengthening bilateral private sector ties, as reported by the Jordan News Agency, Petra. The forum will include meetings between Jordanian business owners and the Kuwaiti delegation. The delegation, which will be headed by General Manager of the Kuwaiti Public Authority for Industry Abdul Karim Taqi, will include representatives of the public and private sectors.

Kingdom's industrial sector aims to boost exports to Palestinian market

The Jordanian industrial sector seeks to increase Jordanian exports to the Palestinian market, Jordan Chamber of Industry board member and representative of the food industry sector Mohammad Walid Jitan said on Friday. Jitan gave his remarks during the opening ceremony of a workshop on Palestinian products that aims to break Israeli control over the Palestinian economy. Commercial Attaché at the Palestinian embassy to Jordan Shaher Abu Gharbieh called for further commercial cooperation between the two countries.
